***TOPICAL ESSAY: The applicant will write a 1,200 word (approximate) essay on the following topic: The Cainhoy peninsula in Charleston County is the largest remaining undeveloped tract of land in the city of Charleston. It encompasses roughly 9,000 acres — nearly triple the size of the main Charleston peninsula — and hosts some of the most charismatic flora and fauna in the Lowcountry. However, Cainhoy is slated for extensive development. What are the risks and potential impacts to this important area and what might developers do to reduce those impacts?

***PERSONAL ESSAY/AUTOBIOGRAPHY: On separate paper, the applicant will write a brief autobiography to include a description of his/her career ambitions in the fields, why he/she desires a college education, plus explain his/her interests in wildlife, natural resources, the environment, coastal resources or related topics and why he/she will be good investment if awarded this scholarship. (No more than three pages typed).
